

CONSULTATIONS ON THE FUTURE OF SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL PROVISION IN GREENWICH: MAY 2018

The Royal Borough of Greenwich has set up a number of different consultations, with a range of different stakeholders on the future of special educational provision in the Borough. These have included:

1. A survey monkey consultation with families disseminated via Greenwich Parent Voice
2. A survey monkey consultation with other stakeholders including:
 - RBG employees
 - Schools within the Borough
 - Health colleagues
3. An informal table top consultation with Head teachers at a Schools Partnership event: 30/01/18
4. An informal table top consultation with SENCOs at a SENCO network: 16/01/18
5. An informal table top consultation with Governors
6. Discussion with Greenwich Parent Voice at regular monthly meetings

Information has informed the proposals for developments in this area for the future provision.
