Data Protection Act

Personal data will not be released to a third party where this contravenes the Data Protection Act. However, it is justifiable to make a disclosure without consent: when a student under the age of 18 or a vulnerable adult is believed to be at serious risk of harm; when there is evidence of serious public harm or risk of harm to others; when there is evidence of serious health risk to an individual; when instructed to do so by a court or other statutory agency; in the prevention, detection or prosecution of crime.

Declaration

I understand that the College cannot guarantee the provision of any course and has the right to remove a place on any programme of study at any time. Any course may be altered or withdrawn owing to circumstances including (but not limited to) industrial action, change in College circumstances, withdrawal of funding and lack of demand. The college will not reimburse students for any loss or expenditure occurred as a result of the withdrawal of an offer. I certify that the details included in this application are correct and I give permission for the college to make further enquiries as necessary to validate the information provided.
