Care and Support

Working with vulnerable children,
young people and families– KCN14

Do you work with vulnerable children, young people and their families? Would you like to know what issues they may face and what support is available? Or are you interested in this field and feel you have something to contribute?

This course is an introductory level, designed to give you an understanding of what risk and vulnerability means for children, young people and their families. You will explore children's rights, child development and attachment theory, the factors that increase vulnerability and how support can be given in a variety of settings and situations.

Teaching is interactive and dynamic, using a variety of methods to involve students in their learning.
