1. Policy Overview

Charlton Park Academy is committed to operating fairly, honestly and with integrity. As part of this overall commitment, the Trust has a zero-tolerance policy in relation to bribery and corruption. This includes a commitment to comply with all applicable anti-bribery and corruption laws and regulations and, in particular, the Bribery Act 2010.

Compliance with the law helps to maintain and enhance our good reputation and reflects our goal to serve the best interests of our pupils. Compliance also protects the Trust, its employees and anyone else associated with it from the severe consequences of breaking the law. Penalties in the UK include unlimited fines in the case of CPA and unlimited personal fines and up to ten years' imprisonment in the case of individuals.

UK bribery laws are extensive and prohibit the giving or receiving of bribes. A bribe is designed to improperly influence the way in which a person acts and may be in the form of money but can also be any other type of advantage. For example, the law extends to the giving or receipt of inappropriate entertainment and to "grease" payments to public officials (e.g. payments to expedite a process).

Remember that the law can be complex, and it will not always be clear how the law applies in every situation. Therefore, any questions or concerns about the application of the law to specific situations should be directed to the Principal or Senior Vice-Principal. To ensure compliance with the law, you should ensure also that you follow our policies and procedures in relation to gifts and entertainment and claiming expenses.

We require all employees and anyone else associated with the Academy to follow this policy and to comply with all applicable anti-bribery and corruption laws. It is the responsibility of all of us to make sure that we uphold our values and that all of our dealings are legitimate.

It is a disciplinary offence to engage in conduct or behaviour that does not comply with this policy or for anyone in a managerial or supervisory capacity to fail to act in respect of any such conduct or behaviour. This will be dealt with under the disciplinary procedure and could lead to dismissal without notice.

If you believe that anyone associated with the company is acting in a way that may contravene the law or that could put the company at risk then it is your duty to report the matter as soon as possible. If you are uncomfortable talking to your supervisor or your supervisor's manager or you do not receive a satisfactory response, then you should contact the Principal or the Chair of Governors.

2. Policy Definitions

Bribery

The Bribery Act 2010 introduces four offences:

- The offence of bribing another person. This can occur where a person offers, promises, or gives a financial or other advantage to another individual to perform improperly a relevant function or activity.
- The offence of being bribed. This is where a person receives or accepts a financial or other advantage to perform a function or activity improperly.

- Bribery of a foreign public official. This is where a person directly or through a third party offers, promises, or gives any financial or other advantage to a foreign public official in an attempt to influence them.
- A corporate offence of failure to prevent bribery. A commercial organisation could be guilty of bribery where a person associated with the organisation, such as an employee, agent or even a sub-contractor, bribes another person intending to obtain or retain business for the organisation.

Corruption

The offering, giving, soliciting or acceptance of an inducement or reward that may influence the actions of any person. Both parties are equally guilty of an offence.

3. Gifts and Entertainment

Anyone associated with the Trust must adhere to the rules and guidance in this policy when giving or receiving gifts or entertainment.

In no circumstances should anyone associated with the Trust offer, give or accept any gift or hospitality which might be construed as an attempt to influence a business decision (e.g. hospitality or a gift during a tender process).

If you are ever uncertain as to the correct course of action, please speak in confidence to the Senior Vice-Principal, Principal or the Chair of Governors.

3.1 Gifts

Giving of Gifts

In general, the Trust does not believe that the giving of gifts is appropriate. Staff must never give a gift on behalf of the Trust without the express permission of the Senior Vice-Principal, Principal or the Chair of Governors. If staff seek permission to give a gift, they must be prepared to explain the reason for which the gift is being given and why the gift is appropriate.

For clarity, the following represent allowable costs that can be incurred by the Academy and are therefore not captured by the above definition of 'gifts':

- Purchase of flowers, the giving of a charitable donation, or similar, either to academy staff or an appropriate external party, as a one-off gesture to recognise circumstances such as, illness or as a 'thank you'.
- Purchase of food, drink and other related items for staff and external individuals where necessary as part of special events – for example parents' evenings, Academy-organised sports events, etc.

Such gifts as described above are allowable when appropriate, not excessive, and approved by the Senior Vice-Principal, Principal or the Chair of Governors.

For clarity, the use of academy funds is not allowable in the following circumstances:

- As a gift for life-events such as resignation, retirement or maternity, although staff may choose to purchase a gift by collecting their own personal funds.
- For the purchase of alcohol.

Receipt of Gifts

Gifts in this context include goods and services. In general, you are required to return any gift or give it to charity and send a suitable letter explaining that the Trust's policy is not to accept gifts.

However, CPA recognises it is common accepted practice for academy staff to accept low value gifts from pupils or parents, for example at the end of term. Gifts of this nature do not need to be recorded on the register of gifts and hospitality, so long as the gift is less than £10 in value and could not be perceived as being given to exert undue influence on the staff member.

For clarity, the following are not considered to be gifts under the definitions of this policy and can therefore be accepted so long as they cannot be construed as an attempt to influence a business decision:

- Items provided for use by academy staff in the performance of their role at the Academy, which would otherwise need to be purchased. Examples could include:
 - Pens
 - Calendars
 - Other low value stationery items
- Special offers, for example:
 - 3 for the price of 2
 - Discounts
- Gifts provided for pupils at the Academy, so long as the procurement decision does not take account of the donation of the gift. Examples of such donations could include:
 - Textbooks or other similar materials
 - Sports equipment
 - Other donations not directly related to the provision of education, but for example which could be used by the academy to reward students

Under no circumstances can gifts of cash or an equivalent be accepted.

3.2 Grease Payments / “Kickbacks”

Grease payments or “kickbacks” to public officials in order to gain or speed up actions by them must not be made. These are illegal and any demand for them must be reported to the Principal or the Chair of Governors.

3.3 Hospitality / Entertainment

The provision and receipt of reasonable hospitality related to the business activities of the Trust is allowed provided that the procedures set out in this policy are adhered to. However, the giving or receiving of hospitality/entertainment on behalf of the Trust should always be kept within reasonable limits.

If you are offered hospitality of any value as a consequence of your role within the Trust:

- If you are an SLT member, you must disclose the hospitality and its nature to the Principal or the Chair of Governors, and obtain written approval before accepting on the form attached to the appendix of this policy.
- If you are an Academy staff member you must disclose the item to your Principal and obtain written approval before accepting on the form attached to the appendix of this policy.

In addition, if any hospitality/entertainment is likely to exceed £50 then its provision or receipt must be authorised by the Principal or the Chair of Governors in advance. Factors that will be taken into account in making a decision will include the proportionality of the event, whether a procurement is underway or likely to be commenced in the future and what the intended purpose of the event is. For example, it would not be unreasonable to accept proportionate hospitality if the purpose of it was to cement effective working relationships. In particular, if you do not get the appropriate authorisation then you will not be reimbursed your expenses.

Any hospitality or entertainment offered, whether accepted or declined, must be recorded in the Academy Register of Gifts and Hospitality.
