

A Guide To Wills And Trusts for Parents of Children with Special Needs

By Rhiannon Gogh

About the book

“WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO MY CHILD WHEN I’M NO LONGER HERE?”

Plan Your Child’s Future with Confidence: A Guide for Parents of Children with special needs

As a parent of a child or young person with special needs, the thought of what will happen when you're no longer here can be overwhelming. This practical guide from UK finance expert Rhiannon Gogh provides everything you need to create a clear future proof plan in just 90 days.

Learn how to:

- Arrange a will and trust tailored to your child's needs
- Secure your family's financial future with pension and life insurance
- Navigate the legal and financial complexities of special educational needs and disability send planning
- Communicate your wishes to your family

With up-to-date guidance and expert instruction this book empowers you to protect your child's future with confidence.

Rhiannon Gogh is a trainer presenter and award-winning chartered financial advisor with over 20 years finance experience. Rhiannon specialises in advising the families of the vulnerable around the complexities of financial planning. Since her son was diagnosed with autism at 36 months, she has helped thousands of send families plan for the future.

www.carersacademy.co.uk